Learn how to: Create a profile, add content to the map, follow a language, and follow a community.
Note: You do not need to create a profile to view the map, only to add content.

Visit: www.maps.fpcc.ca

Before you can begin to add any content or data to the map you must first create an account.

Click "Login" at the top of the page to create an account.

Click "Sign up" and complete all fields (email, name, password).

Next, you will receive a verification email. You must verify your email before you can continue.
Once verified, your registration will be confirmed! Click "Continue".
Note: If you do not receive it, please check your junk or spam folder.

Now your account is set up! Let's create your user profile.

Set up User Profile:

This profile information will not be visible on the map. This is for personal user account details. Users can upload an image and include a bit about yourself in the fields below. (Image, Name, Language (if applicable), Community (if applicable), User Description)

Once your account profile is complete you are ready to start adding content, follow a community or follow a language!

Are you an Indigenous artist? Create your artist profile and start uploading your work to the map!

1) Add a pinpoint to the map to indicate a single location where you are currently residing. Exact address is not mandatory.
2) Complete the artist profile information.
   Upload image, artist name, language, community, discipline, location, awards, website, bio, artist statement, etc. This will help users get to know a little more about you as an artist.
3) Start sharing your work by clicking "upload an artwork" (photo, audio/video, YouTube link)

Are you an Indigenous organization? Add your organization to the map.

4) Add a pinpoint to the map to indicate a single location where your organization can be found. Exact address is preferred.
5) Complete the organization profile information.
   Upload image, organization name, community, tag, location, email, website, description, etc. This will help users get to know a little more about you as an organization.

6) You can share more about your organization by clicking "upload a media/file" (photo, audio/video, YouTube link)

To follow a language and/or community:
Click the "follow" button on the language or community that you want to follow and receive notifications for.

If you have any additional questions regarding the steps listed above, please email maps@fpcc.ca for additional support. We are happy to help!

HÍSW̱ḴE,
First Peoples' Map of B.C.